Dear Joe:

Thank you for your January 22 letter, copy of your book, and other information. This letter will confirm our desire to have you speak at our luncheon on Saturday, August 13, 1994. The luncheon will be held in the New York Marriott Marquis Hotel in New York City on the final day of our 1994 convention. We will give two awards at the luncheon and request that you speak following the awards for 30 to 45 minutes. Your comments on "Accountability in the System" should be of interest to our members. Since the overwhelming majority of convention attendees will be academics, anything you can do to work in academic responsibility in this area would probably be good. I am authorized to make a payment of $2,500 to you directly or to the foundation of your choice. The American Accounting Association is a 501-(c)-3 educational organization and I trust that contribution will be acceptable.

I will get back to you at a later date with more specific information regarding the meeting. I would appreciate your sending a black and white photo of yourself for publicity purposes. If possible, please try to have the photo reach me by the third week of February. We are all looking forward to having you address our attendees at the luncheon on Saturday, August 13 in New York City.

Very truly yours,

AMERICAN ACCOUNTING ASSOCIATION
