Dear Ross,

I enjoyed meeting and chatting with you at the Capitol Hill Club in D.C. a few weeks ago. Our mutual friend Cong. Duncan Hunter suggested I follow up our good discussion on bringing fiscal responsibility and accountability to the federal government. Since we last met, I testified in front of the Joint Committee on the Organization of Congress (Boren/Dreier), and thought you might like to see my ten point plan to straighten out our nation's books. I'd like to work with you on this, Ross. Please call me.

Warm Regards, Joe
